Conſtantinople, November 16. O. S.

YEſterday the Muſcovite Envoy M. Daſchof ſet out from hence on his Return Home, making a publick Cavalcade through the Town. A Turkiſh Aga is gone with him, to compliment the Czar upon the Renewal of the Peace between him and the Port. The two French Men of War which brought hither the Turkiſh Ambaſſadour who was lately in France, ſailed from hence about 10 Days ago. The Venetian Bailo has not yet been with the Vizier, to make the Republick's Excuſes for what paſſed in the Affair of the Dulcignots; but expects to be called every Day, and he is to carry with him five and twenty Veſts of Velvet, Sattin, and Venetian Brocade, as Preſents for the Grand Signior; which is an additional Expence to the Republick, not ſtipulated by the Agreement, but demanded by the Turks as a conſtant Practice on the like Occaſions, to which the Bailo ſubmits. A Perſian Ambaſſadour is lately arrived here with a numerous Retinue, chiefly to return the Compliments made by a Turkiſh one lately come back from that Country.

Stockholm, Dec. 6. Yeſterday Morning the King and Queen of Sweden went to the Palace of Carlberg, where his Majeſty dined and returned to Town in the Evening. But as ſoon as there falls a little Snow, it is ſaid the King will go and take the Diverſion of Hunting for ſix or eight Days at the Royal Seat of Grypſholm. The Commiſſioners who were ſeveral Months ago appointed by the Chancery here, for examining into and giving Judgment upon the Fiſcal's Charge againſt M. Hopken, who was Reſident from this Court at that of Vienna, but left his Poſt and came hither without Permiſſion the Cloſe of laſt Year, have now finiſhed that Examination, but have not yet pronounced their Sentence. Laſt Week arrived here two or three ſmall Veſſels from Finland, with an Account of the Arrival there of all the Troops ſent thither ſince the Concluſion of the Peace with the Czar of Muſcovy; for though ſeveral of the Tranſport Ships were ſtranded in Stormy Weather, yet the Men on board them had all the good Fortune to eſcape: But there is yet no News of Major-General Von Eſſen, who went from hence in October laſt, to be Governour of the Province of East-Bothnia; ſo that it is feared he with the Ship that carried him is loſt. Some Days ago the Crews of ſix large Dutch Ships came over hither from Finland, thoſe Ships having been caſt away near Helſingfors in their Way home from Petersbourg and Narva.

Naples, Dec. 19. Laſt Week the Daughter of his Excellency the Prince of Borgheſe Viceroy of this Kingdom, ſet out from hence for Rome, having been married here the Day before by Proxy to the Duke of Bracciano reſiding there.

Lisbon, Dec. 25, N. S. Letters from Cadiz of the 7th Inſtant, N. S. bring Advice, that all Commerce was prohibited at that Place with Holland as well as with France: It is generally believed, that this Prohibition is occaſioned by the groundleſs Report of the Plague having been brought into the Texel by the Dutch Man of War ſaid to belong to Admiral Somelſdyke's Squadron, being the ſame Ship which not long ago cauſed ſome Alarm in England. As the Conde de Aſſumar, late Viceroy of the Rio de Janeiro, is preparing to return to Portugal, and in order thereto is obliged to adjuſt his Accompts with his Succeſſour; it is believed that the Fleet from thence may be later than uſual in coming Home, and cannot be expected in this Harbour till the End of the next Month.

Paris, Jan. 14. On the 10th Inſtant the Duke of Chartres was taken ill of a Fever, which laſted almoſt 24 Hours, and for which he was bled the next Day; and having had ſince another Fit of it, he was bled for the ſecond time time last Night, when his Fever continued ſtill upon him. The whole Court is extreamly alarmed at this Accident. The Cardinal de Rohan will not arrive here till the 25th Inſtant, by reaſon of his having ſtopt ſeveral Days at Turin. It is aſſured that ſoon after his Arrival he will adminiſter to the King the Sacrament of Confirmation. The Duke d'Oſſuna went on the 12th Inſtant to the Palais Royal to take his Leave of the Cardinal du Bois; he deſigns to ſet out from hence for Spain in 8 or 10 Days. P. S. The Duke of Chartres reſted pretty well laſt Night; but his Fever continues ſtill upon him, though not with much Violence.

Whitehall, Jan. 8. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order Letters Patents to be paſſed under the Great Seal of Ireland, containing a Grant of the Dignity of a Baron of that Kingdom unto James O Hara, Eſq; eldeſt Son of the Right Honourable Charles Lord Tyrawley, by the Name, Stile and Title of Baron Killmaine of Killmaine in the County of Mayo in the ſaid Kingdom.

Whereas the Officers of ſeveral Regiments have acquainted the Secretary at War, that they have Men in their Regiments become unfit for further Service, which they would recommend to the Penſion of Chelſea Hoſpital when a Meeting of the Commiſſioners ſhall be had for that Service; Theſe are therefore to give Notice, that the Lords and others Commiſſioners for the Affairs of the ſaid Hoſpital will meet the beginning of February next, to examine ſuch invalid Soldiers as ſhall be reduced from their reſpective Regiments, and ſhall ſend or bring the Certificates of their Services to the Secretary's Office at the ſaid Hoſpital.
